RPPOB Program

- Commonly referred to as the Bailment Program
- Mandated by law, implemented by DODI 4140.57
- Allows a domestic business to purchase or borrow replenishment parts
 - Some items not eligible to be borrowed
- Primary goals
 - Enhance competition through development of an alternate source
 - Reduce taxpayer costs and improve lead time

RPPOB Program Steps

- You request item(s)
- We inform you of:
 - Demand information
 - Your cost to purchase the item(s)
 - Any available data
- You determine if you wish to proceed
 - Military Service concurrence is required prior to Sales or Loans
- We forward you a contract for the purchase of the item(s)

- You return the signed contract and payment for the item(s)
- We ship the item(s) to you and you conduct the reverse engineering at your own expense
- You prepare a Source Approval Request (SAR) per <http://www.aviation.dla.mil/userweb/sbo/AVN%20Source%20Approval%20Handbook.pdf> and submit it to us
- We forward your SAR to the appropriate Military Service for review/approval

Virtual Parts Catalog & Display Room

- Essentially the same contents
 - Opportunity for a short tour
- Consists of multiple items to be reversed engineered
 - Typically sole source items with a minimum of $40,000 annual demand
 - Small subset of DLA Aviation items
- Encouraging competition on these items will reduce acquisition costs
- Many potential suppliers locate reverse engineering candidates via our Virtual Parts

Catalog

- Interface with potential suppliers
 - Opportunity to discuss resident items
 - How to view the DLA Internet Bid Board System (DIBBS) and other computer systems that will assist in identifying annual demand and other potentially helpful indicators
- For additional information visit our Virtual Parts Catalog via the RPPOB page at: <https://dla.dod.afpims.mil/Aviation/Offers/Services/AviationEngineering/Engineering/RPPOB.aspx>
